CLASS HISTORY

By the first of September, the year '41
N. P. had received us; high school life had begun.
Losing no time, we arranged our first election,
Voted Mike De Vito presidential selection,
Named Eddie Smith running mate to preside,
And with Peg McGaffin as secretary rested, satisfied.
Bill Krovatin, as treasurer, went after our cash
And did a really splendid job with nary a clash.
The months rolled by, and along came December—
December, '41—a date we'll long remember.
At a request from our government we shouldered the task
Of learning our lessons and learning them fast.
Thus days passed, and all too soon June was upon us,
Doors opened, books closed, summer breathed on us.
At the end of the summer we trooped back to school
A wee bit wiser; no more responsive to rule.
We found a new president in young Bob Caruso,
Said we'd beat Plainfield, and actually did do so.
Very shortly the spotlight was gained by John Pellerano
Who wrote, staged, and directed a sophomore show
In which, though reeking with talent surprisingly good,
Epstein still starred, as only Epstein could.
When March flew around, we held our first Tea Dance,
But coax as we might, the boys wouldn't prance.
By spring of that year the war'd begun to reach us
With less gas, no tires, fewer teachers to teach us.
And when every thing ended at summer's sweet season,
Many found jobs for patriotic reason.
Returning that fall to those who had taught us,
We basked in the prestige two years had bought us.
The presidency fell to the versatile Eppie.
We added a supporting trio of peppy
Co-workers—Haggart and Cole and Tovell by name,
And most large was their bounty, if too small their acclaim.

Our football team seemed to like the winning feeling,
For they again beat the Cards and sent them back reeling.
With Audrey Keiderling as chairman we purchased our class rings,
'Though this was but one of many exciting things.
Our glorious Junior Prom with "Toe" at its head
Was a memorable night when few went to bed.
The decorations were beautiful, and, needless to say,
The Prom was N. P.'s finest in many a day.
So—we came to the end of our third year in school
And left, happy in thinking that as seniors we'd rule.
When we returned in the fall of forty-four,
We noticed a change upon ent'ring the front door.
There in the office in the principal's place
Sat someone new—yes, indeed, a new face!
We soon learned to know and to like Dr. Bare,
And as the year passed, we rejoiced he was there.
Eppie, back in office, led us ably to the close,
And it cannot be disputed that he kept us on our toes.
As Student Council leader Bob Caruso served us well;
Of his trials with Canuck Canteen only he alone can tell.
Surpassing honor came to us in basketball this year
When mounting tides of victory brought a grin from ear to ear
As Coach, triumphant, held aloft the Central Jersey crown,
A coronet that dazzles in any sportsman's town.
Johnny Pellerano in a burst of studied wit
Decked the halls for merriment and staged the Yearbook Skit.
With rollicking good humor and a fund of jokes galore
The cast responded to a laughing school which laughed and laughed still more.
The annual Senior Banquet which assembled at the Park
Saw us at our very best and yet remained a lark.
For despite our grown up guises, we were still a merry group
Bent on seasoning ev'ry course, beginning with the soup,
With anecdotes and trivia from a store of rich resources,
And our gaiety resounded to the clink of changing courses.
Unhappily our class decreased as months went winging by,
And many a casual "Hiya!" became a strained "Aye! Aye!"
As more and more our boys were called upon to serve the nation
In army, navy, signal corps, marine, and aviation.
Commencement brings a mingled mood—part happiness, part sorrow,
Reluctant to leave, we're beckoned still by promise in the morrow.
And parting is indeed such sorrow; what words are there to tell
The troubled thoughts of us who breathe this simple one—

Farewell!

IN APPRECIATION

The Staff of the 1945 Canuck wishes to extend its sincerest appreciation to all those who have helped in any way to make this book a success. In particular we wish to thank

Miss Mary McCrea

Miss Georgiana Gilbert

Miss Doris Clough

and to our excellent advisor, Miss Rosalie Kling, without who's guidance and ceaseless energy this book could never have become the success that it is, we gratefully express our most sincere gratitude.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

President ..... DONALD CHRISTIANSEN
Vice-President ..... IRENE METZLER
Secretary ..... MARGARET MCGAFFIN
Treasurer ..... CARMELA RENDA
Adviser ..... MR. ALBERT SURINA

MEMBERSHIP in the National Honor Society is bestowed upon those students who are outstanding in Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service.

The Honor Society lends its assistance at graduation exercises and also at S. A. T. Assemblies.

During the present school year, however, the main efforts of the society have been directed toward the editing and distribution of the "Service-Letter," a communication which is sent to former students of North Plainfield High School who are now in the armed forces.

Members of the society, other than officers, are:

Barbara Bayous
Elsie Madsen
John Marshall
Jane Mawby
Claire Tovell
David Van Ollefen
Dora Wickett

STUDENT COUNCIL

President ..... ROBERT CARUSO
Vice-President ..... FRED DIEM
Secretary ..... BARBARA ECKERT
Treasurer ..... MARGARET MCGAFFIN
Adviser ..... MR. MCCURDY

THE OBJECTIVES of the Student Council were the promotion of student participation in the government of the school and the establishment of a greater number of interesting extra-curricular activities.

The work of the Student Council was carried out by various committees such as publicity, handbook, election, social, hall patrol, fire patrol, welfare, and lost and found.

The Student Council sponsored three evening dances during the year, one of which was formal. The Canuck Canteen was operated by a committee of the Council. In addition, Student Council was in charge of weekly noon-hour dances, various assemblies, and the sale of war bonds and stamps.

President Caruso left for the Navy in April and Vice-President Diem took over for the remainder of the year. The Council hopes that it has carried out the wishes of the student body, and has helped to make a successful school year.

TUNLAW

Editor-in-Chief ..... JANE MAWBY
News Editor ..... JOHN MARSHALL
Feature Editor ..... ELSIE MADSEN
Assistant ..... MARILYN JAMES
Sports Editor ..... WILLIAM MCMICHAEL
Assistant ..... ROGER RICHARDS
Girls Sports Editor ..... CLAIRE VOORHEES

Assistant ..... FLORENCE CONOVER
Editorial Adviser ..... MR. JOHN M. HOAGLAND
Business Adviser ..... MRS. JEAN ENNIS

THE "TUNLAW" staff, under the direction of Mr. John M. Hoagland, has published the first printed newspaper in five years. Only seven members had previously worked on the "Tunlaw," but the staff did a good job keeping the school well informed.

LIBRARY COUNCIL

President ..... IRENE METZLER
Vice-President ..... ELLA TORGERSON
Secretary ..... DOROTHY WILLIAMS
Treasurer ..... ADA BONINI
Adviser ..... MISS M. BAECHTOLD

UNDER THE NEW GUIDANCE of Miss Baechtold, who came to N.P.H.S. last September, the Library Council has undertaken many novel duties. The outstanding features this year were the development of a reserve system and the Open-House for the faculty during Book-Week.

Any student is eligible for membership on Library Council provided he maintains marks of "c" or above. Freshmen may join during the second semester of the year.

The routine duties of the Council are taking attendance, slipping and shelving books, writing fines and overdue notices, charging out books, and in general assisting the librarian.

Although the Somerset Library Council is a separate organization, they are included in the high school Library Council picture because their membership consists of Somerset freshmen, who are part of N.P.H.S.

DRAMATIC CLUB

A MORE CLOSELY ORGANIZED Dramatic Club started its 1944-1945 season, in having one club rather than a senior and junior group. Freshmen were admitted to membership following the first play.

The first production was, "Best Foot Forward," presented by the second period advanced speech class December 1 and 2, 1944, but sponsored by the Dramatic Club.

"Seven Sisters," a comedy in a Hungarian setting, was produced by the club itself, the first performance being given March 16, 1945. The second performance was given the evening of April 13, 1945.

As a final production, the club sponsored the third period advanced speech class in a mystery, "The Ghost of Rhodes Manor."

Thespian initiation took place at the Park Hotel, at which time members who had earned the honor were initiated into the Thespian Society. Thespian awards were presented at this time also.

Mrs. Glaser, the club advisor, deserves commendation, leading the group through an outstanding year.

FORUM CLUB

President ..... JOHN MARSHALL

Secretary and Treasurer ..... MARILYN JAMES

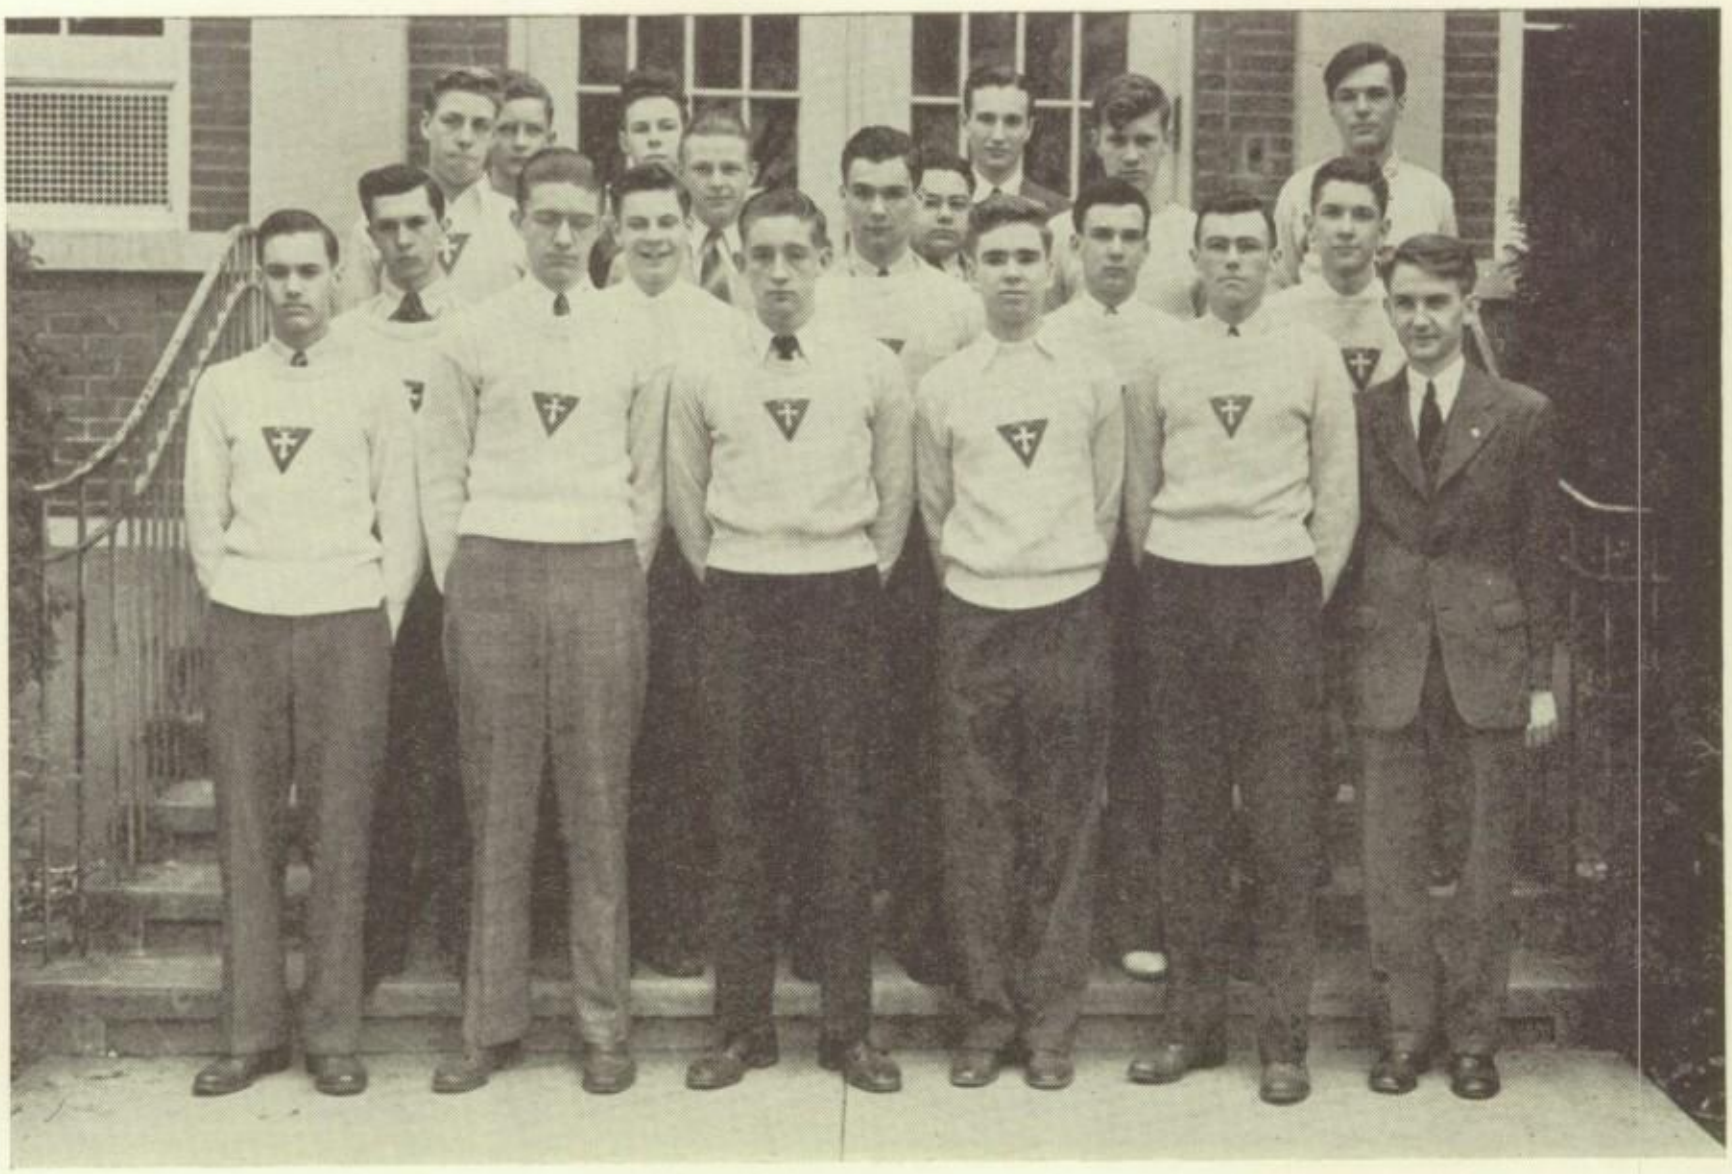
THIS YEAR the Forum Club is composed of volunteers from the P.A.D. classes. The students meet every Wednesday after school to plan class forums which are presented each Thursday in class.

Such topics as Juvenile Delinquency, Post War Unemployment, Compulsory Military Training, and Racial Equality have been discussed this year under the able assistance of Mrs. Gladys F. Henry.

Three major forums have been presented outside of class. "Should we have Compulsory Military Training" was discussed in our assembly March 2 and on March 7 for the West End Parent Teachers Association. "America's Economy in the Post War World" was presented for the Plainfield Rotary on February 28.

We also had two delegates representing North Plainfield High School at the Elizabeth Forum on January 13, John Marshall as moderator and Marilyn James as a speaker.

HI-Y



President ..... JOHN MARSHALL

Vice-President ..... DONALD CHRISTIANSEN

Secretary ..... HERBERT BARTH

Treasurer ..... WILMER POWELL

Chaplain ..... HILTON ANDERSON

THE NORTH PLAINFIELD HI-Y is an organization composed of high school boys striving to uphold its purpose—"to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community higher standards of Christian character."

The club program this year has been a diversified one, covering many fields of interest, including basketball, swimming, dancing, and educational programs of all sorts.

In February the "Log Splitter's Ball," annual HI-Y dance commemoration Lincoln's Birthday, was held at the YMCA.

Contributing greatly to a successful year was the supervision of Mr. Hoagland, the club's adviser.

SENIOR HI-TRI

President ..... AUDREY KEIDERLING
Vice-President ..... CLAIRE TOVELL
Secretary ..... HERTA DEML
Treasurer ..... JEAN KARCH
Program Chairman ..... SHIRLEY THORN
Public Affairs Chairman ..... BARBARA BAYOUS
Publicity Chairman ..... JOAN MCCARTHY
Service Chairman ..... DOROTHY MARTIN
Social Chairman ..... JOY HOOS
EDITH SOPER
Worship Chairman ..... MARILYN JAMISON

SENIOR HI-TRI was very successful and enjoyable this year because of everyone's fine cooperation.

Our outstanding meetings were: Boy and girl debates on dating, several interesting meetings based on charm, and a fashion show.

Two formals, two sport dances, and Open Houses made up our agenda of social affairs.

Senior Hi-Tri may well be proud of its past year, thanks to Mrs. Turnbull, Girl Reserve Secretary, and the advisers.

To the Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen the departing club leaves the good fellowship, laughter and wonderful times that Hi-Tri brings to many girls.

JUNIOR HI-TRI

President ..... EILEEN MCMAHON
Vice-President ..... SHIRLEY HENDRICKSON
Program ..... DOLORES DI LONARDO
Social ..... JEAN YATES
Secretary ..... BARBARA KLEIN
Treasurer ..... MABLE MCGRATH
Public Affairs ..... DORIS DENISE
Worship ..... BARBARA HUMBLE
Publicity ..... MARY WHITELAW
Service ..... LOIS KIPSEY

THE NORTH PLAINFIELD JUNIOR HI-TRI is an organization composed of freshmen and sophomore girls. The programs planned by the club are very appealing, such as dances, open-houses, charm talks, panel discussions, and numerous other activities. This club also develops leadership and responsibility. The girl reserve code, which is the goal each member tries to fulfill, is to face life squarely and to find and give the best.

"LOS AMIGOS"

President ..... CAROLYN CHIRELLO
Vice-President ..... SHIRLEY LERER
Secretary ..... LAWRENCE GESSNER
Treasurer ..... LATTIE DAWSON
Adviser ..... MRS. LUCY AHERN

THE SPANISH CLUB "Los Amigos," established this year under the competent direction of Mrs. Lucy Ahern, functions as a medium to bring about better understanding and co-operation among the American Republics.

At the meetings held every two weeks, the members discussed future plans, sang Spanish songs and played Spanish games. One of the proposals concerned Inter-American correspondence, aimed at familiarizing its members with the students of our Spanish-speaking neighbors.

The major accomplishment was the Latin-American Fiesta held on the twentieth of April. The event, an overwhelming success, featured two films on Mexico, a Spanish play, "Una Fiesta Mejicana" and a bull-fight. This was followed by solos, Latin-American dances, and the purchasing of refreshments and native items at booths.

It is hoped that the club will continue to achieve the success it has enjoyed this year. "Buena Suerte," Los Amigos."

MUSIC

BAND—The band this year really deserves extra credit because according to the community and Mr. Schaedel, it is the best one N.P.H.S. has ever had. Showing true school spirit, it has attended all the football games to give that added colorful attraction always looked for by the spectators. Besides having played for Friday assemblies, the members participated in the annual concerts which displayed their good musicianship. Several of the members were selected to play in the All-State Band.

ORCHESTRA—The orchestra did a fine job in playing at the Dramatic Club plays and at S.A.T. Assemblies. Some of its members were also selected for All-State Orchestra.

CHORUS—The Girls' Chorus made its first appearance in the Spring Concert, singing to band accompaniment. Then they sang for an assembly and for the Memorial Day Services. Some of the girls tried out for All-State Chorus and succeeded in being chosen.

Surely the excellent music department, under the direction of Maestro Schaedel, has proved the old saying that "Music Hath Charms."

DEPARTMENT

HALL PATROL

Chief ..... ARTHUR DE FILLIPO
Captains ..... FRANCIS DOHERTY, AUDREY KEIDERLING
Adviser ..... MISS MARY MCCREA

THE HALL PATROL this year has taken a more active part in school affairs than it has in many years. Following through with its purpose, that is to maintain order and gain respect from underclassmen, the Hall Patrol has kept order at basketball games, during lunch period and at any other time when their services were required. A great deal of praise for this year's patrol belongs to our adviser, Miss Mary McCrea, who's untiring effort helped us to achieve our many goals.

ATHLETICS

GIRL'S

THE GIRL'S SPORTS DEPARTMENT was under the able supervision of Miss Ruth. After school as well as during class the girls had hockey, badminton, volley ball, basketball and ballroom dancing. The highly skilled art of fencing was introduced by Miss Ruth and some of the simpler rudiments of modern dancing. All these things helped to make us a little less clumsy and decidedly more limber.

One of the newest clubs organized in this hall of knowledge is the Leader's Club. The object of the club is to do exactly what the name implies—lead. From each girl's gym period several pupils were elected to Miss Ruth's creation. Regular meetings were held every two weeks where the girls were taught to work the apparatus, lead exercises and marching. In time, any of these students will be able to take over a class and run it well.

THE NORTH PLAINFIELD HIGH SCHOOL CHEERLEADERS have taken an active part in extra-curricular activities this year. The squad has supported the football team and basketball team in both county and state games. They have also assisted in making this year's assemblies more lively.

FOOTBALL

THE 1944 FOOTBALL SEASON was not a very successful one, although it did afford an opportunity for the boys to enjoy a fine spirit of sportsmanship among themselves and among other teams.

Hampered by the return of only four lettermen, Coach Gunther Heyse was confronted with the difficult task of getting together a combination that would click. Although he was not completely successful, he did pick the best possible combination he could and should receive a great deal of credit for the untiring effort he put into his work.

The season was rounded out nicely by tying Bound Brook in a hard fought game.

BASKETBALL

THE 1944-45 BASKETBALL TEAM had the most successful season in the history of North Plainfield High School. The fact that they won the City Championship for the first time in ten years and the County Championship for the fourth successive year is a feat in itself, but by entering into the finals in the State Tournament, they accomplished something no other North Plainfield team has ever done.

Although the beginning of the season looked mighty dark, the boys came through in splendid style to win the Central Jersey Championship in Group 3. They deserve a vote of appreciation and a big hand for the excellent job they did.

While we praise the team, let's not forget the man who made all this possible—Coach Howard Krausche.

The assistant coach who also did a fine job was Mr. Fred Schmidt.
